

Dyslexia Checklist

By Nicole Nichols-West

- Reading
 - Lose place on the line.
 - Switch lines.
 - Have difficulty making sense of a passage unless you read it several times.
 - Slow in finding place again if looking away.
 - Add words that are not there.
- Spelling
 - Spell a word different ways in the same piece of work.
 - Reverse letters in a word.
 - Confuse letters.
 - Forget basic spelling rules.
 - Add letters to a word.
 - Miss out letters in a word.
 - Miss out parts of a word.
- Writing
 - Form letters and numbers badly.
 - Tight pen grip.
 - Hand ache.
 - Unable to use and/or understand punctuation marks.
 - Forget to cross 't', dot 'i' or cross 'l' instead of 't'.
 - Leave out capitals.
 - Leave out syllables in words.
 - Find it difficult to copy notes from a board.
- Other Indicators
 - Confusion between left and right.
 - Distorted sense of time.
 - Easily distracted and has poor concentration.
 - Confusion with mathematical symbols.