

Class Reunion Event Checklist

By Kent McGroarty

- ☐ Class reunion committee
 - ☐ Create a committee four or five months before the reunion Once it's established, assign a chairperson and treasurer. Email old classmates who live nearby, and ask if they will work as volunteers. Decide how frequently to meet and create an event schedule, such as having a venue booked by a certain date.
 - ☐ Form a subcommittee and assign responsibilities Groups like "food and beverage" and "decorations and programs" will help evenly distribute work among volunteers.
 - ☐ Come up with a budget Determine where the money will be obtained, such as donations, event tickets or both. If you decide classmates must buy tickets for the reunion, establish a ticket price.
 - ☐ Pick a date Many reunions often take place over the Thanksgiving holiday as people fly home to spend time with family.
 - ☐ Select a venue Options include a banquet hall, hotel or bar/restaurant.
 - ☐ Choose lodging.
 - ☐ Create a class reunion website.
 - ☐ Choose the event staff.
 - ☐ Make deposits as necessary.
- ☐ Contact classmates
 - ☐ Organize your contacts Make a list of classmate contact information so you can invite them, via evite or or by mail. You can also poll the guests on reunion themes and class gifts.
 - ☐ Buy postage.
 - ☐ Stay on top of RSVP information Assign a volunteer to keep track of how many people are planning to attend the reunion. Wait until you have a good ideas of how many classmates will be attending before ordering supplies for the party.
- ☐ Food and beverage
 - ☐ Decide on the event menu Buffets are popular, though reunions held at bars and restaurants may opt to allow attendees to order from the establishment menu, which is a cheaper option. Whatever you do, make sure there are food items available for vegetarian and vegan classmates.
 - ☐ Select beverages Talk to your venue's manager to establish a rate for alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks, or purchase your own.
 - ☐ Determine if you need to purchase flatware, glasses, silverware or napkins Your venue will most likely supply these items for you.
- ☐ Entertainment
 - ☐ Book a photographer.
 - ☐ Hire a DJ or live music act Remember to confirm and re-confirm the date and time with your selected entertainment.

- ☐ Make a slideshow Assign a volunteer to put together a slideshow of old photos. Email classmates about contributing photos if desired.
- ☐ Create a nostalgia table Gather photos and items that were popular during your high school years, such as toys, gadgets and framed news headlines.
- ☐ Decorations and favors
 - ☐ Select and purchase class reunion favors Options could include class year coffee mugs, mint tins, hand towels, address books or canteens.
 - ☐ Choose and purchase decorations.
 - ☐ Purchase name tags.
 - ☐ Procure prizes and awards Ask local businesses to donate items for use in raffles and silent auctions. Purchase "awards" if desired to distribute to classmates, such as "Most Changed."
