

Disney Vacation Checklist

By Kimberly French

- Before the Disney Vacation
 - Choose the dates you plan to be at the Disney Resort.
 - Decide on how long you want to be at the Disney Resort.
 - When traveling with toddlers or babies, be sure to plan rest periods into your days, and figure your length of stay with breaks in mind.
 - Select your preferred hotel.
 - Take the time to go over our Walt Disney packing tips.
 - Go online to make your hotel or package reservations.
 - Make car rental reservations if needed.
 - Set up a tentative dining schedule for character meals and other Disney restaurants.
 - Confirm reservations.
 - Plan a budget ahead of time and bring credit cards, cash or traveler's checks.
 - Check the weather forecast before you leave and make sure you pack for the weather.
 - The night before leaving, pack suitcases and carry on bags if flying.
 - Get a map of each theme park.
 - Plan your day accordingly and prioritize the things you want to see most.
- Things to Pack
 - Bring comfortable walking shoes.
 - Pack a variety of clothes depending on the season.
 - Pack a good pair of sunglasses, sunscreen and a hat.
 - Bring a fanny pack for each of you, or backpacks.
 - Make sure you have all documents needed for travel: airline tickets, picture ID's etc.
 - If you have young children and a stroller is part of your park plans, consider bringing one from home.
 - Take your guidebooks and any notes that you have taken
 - Bring rain ponchos.
