

Promote Checklist

By Campbell Rodriguez

- Why Should you promote your checklist?
 - You are being recognized as an expert in a field.
 - You are given credit for the published checklist.
 - Get more publicity - your website is visible on your public profile.
- Automatic Promotion
 - Write Great Checklists Good content is appreciated by others and gets ;"Liked", written about and linked to.
- Facebook
 - "Like" the checklist yourself
 - Write about it on your wall Don't forget to include a link to it
 - Ask your friends to spread the word as well.
- Twitter
 - Tweet about your checklist Don't forget to include a link to it.
 - Ask your followers to re-tweet to their network.
- Other Social Media to use
 - Google+
 - MySpace (for personal checklists)
 - LinkedIn (for professional checklists)
- Bookmarking services.
 - delicious.com
 - digg.com
 - reddit.com
 - stumbleupon.com
 - squidoo.com
- Your website or blog
 - Place your interactive checklist on your website or blog Use the Embed widget.
 - Post your checklist in your blog and ask visitors to submit comments.
 - Invite visitors of your website to view more of your published checklists at Checklist.com
- Your Personal Network
 - Tell your friends and family members about your interactive checklist.

Customize, print, share & USE this list at: checklist.com/promote-checklist

- Put a link to your checklist expert page in your email signature.
- Send an email to your friends, family, classmates, co-workers and invite them to use your checklist.
- Ask your friends, family members, classmates and co-workers to place your interactive checklist on their website.
- Forums, Blogs & Expert sites
 - Find other website owners that you think might be interested in having and using your checklist Ask them to either write about it or Embed the interactive checklist.
 - Join relevant forums, submit comments where appropriate and invite others to use your checklist.
 - Create a new thread on a forum and ask others about their experiences with (your) checklists.
 - Include a link to the checklist or your profile page on your signature
 - Place comments on posts related to your checklist on other bloggers' sites with a link to the checklist.
 - Write an article about your checklist and submit to article submission sites.