☐ The Love That Split the World

During her last summer before college, Natalie glimpses unfamiliar versions of her Kentucky hometown. A mysterious warning and a new connection draw her into a time-bending love story.

☐ A Million Junes

June and Saul grow closer despite a feud between their families. Their relationship opens a story of inherited memories, grief and the magic surrounding their Michigan town.

☐ When the Sky Fell on Splendor

Franny and her friends film local mysteries while recovering from a tragedy that changed their town. A strange object falling from the sky turns their investigations into something much bigger.

☐ Hello Girls

Winona and Lucille leave difficult homes behind on a reckless road trip. Their friendship drives a darkly comic adventure about freedom, loyalty and choosing a different future.

☐ Beach Read

Neighboring authors January and Gus trade writing genres to break their creative blocks. Their summer challenge mixes literary rivalry, family revelations and a growing attraction.

☐ People We Meet on Vacation

Poppy and Alex reconnect on a vacation after their friendship falters. The story moves between their present trip and earlier summers, tracing how two very different people became so close.

☐ Book Lovers

☐ Happy Place

Harriet and Wyn keep their breakup quiet during a familiar group vacation in Maine. Shared history, changing friendships and unfinished feelings shape this second-chance romance.

☐ Funny Story

Librarian Daphne moves in with Miles after their partners leave them for each other. An unlikely friendship and a summer of shared outings help her imagine a life of her own.

☐ Great Big Beautiful Life

Writers Alice and Hayden compete to tell a reclusive heiress's life story. Their developing relationship intertwines with a family's complicated past and the question of who gets to tell it.
