

Mother's Day Gifts

By Lauren Meir

Mother-Celebrating Meals

- Breakfast in bed The traditional pick for many reasons. Cook up her favorite dishes and serve to her in bed. Let her sleep in! You can place cards and flowers on the breakfast tray, just make sure you can carry it all!
- Dining out Take her to her favorite restaurant for breakfast, brunch, lunch or dinner. Make it a family affair and bring the kids, or invite the mothers within your extended family and friends for a mother's day dining experience.
- Home-cooked Meal Prepare her favorites at home or with extended family.
- Family Picnic Pack it up and take it to the park, campground, or other favorite spot.
- Dessert, Sweet Shop, or Cafe If she has a sweet tooth, a specialty dessert bar or her favorite ice cream parlor is a great treat.

Gift Ideas

- Personalized Card Choose wisely and make a standard greeting card more personal with a thoughtful message. Take it a step further and format your own on the computer, or write your own with specialty paper and colored ink.
- Flowers Make your own bouquet from your garden, select your own at the florist or give an edible bouquet of fruit or chocolate "flowers."
- Gift basket Pack a basket with mom's favorite little luxuries. Perhaps a box of her favorite packaged or homemade goodies like cookies and jams, or a sampling of spa treatments such as body lotions and bath salts. Make it extra personal by including family photographs or keepsake trinkets.
- Personal video Make a tribute to mom on-screen. You can even edit and add special features on your computer.
- Scrapbook Fill it with photos, personal messages and colorful keepsakes. (This is a great gift idea for kids who want to help out, too!)
- Perfume, Clothing, or Jewelry.
- Gift Card If you're not sure about her taste in any of the above, why not get her a gift card to her favorite store? Think outside the box: restaurants and spa facilities also have gift cards available.
