- [ ] Toy Story

  Cowboy doll Woody meets his unexpected rival when space-ranger toy Buzz Lightyear arrives in Andy's bedroom. Their clash begins a toy-sized adventure built around friendship, jealousy and finding your place.

- [ ] A Bug's Life

  Inventive ant Flik recruits a troupe of circus insects to help his colony face a gang of grasshoppers. The tiny setting turns everyday plants and objects into the landscape of an underdog adventure.

- [ ] Toy Story 2

  A collector separates Woody from Andy's toys and introduces him to the world of Woody's Roundup. Buzz leads a rescue mission as Woody weighs the appeal of being treasured against the joy of being played with.

- [ ] Monsters, Inc.

  Top scarers Sulley and Mike work in a city powered by children's screams, until a little girl slips into their world. The unlikely visitors must navigate both a busy factory and the monsters' fear of human children.

- [ ] Finding Nemo

  After young clownfish Nemo is taken from the reef, his father Marlin crosses the ocean with forgetful companion Dory. Their search moves between open-water encounters and Nemo's attempts to understand life inside a dentist's aquarium.

- [ ] The Incredibles

  Superheroes Bob and Helen Parr are raising a family while keeping their powers out of sight. A secret assignment draws Bob back into hero work, with consequences that soon involve the whole household.

- [ ] Cars

  Race car Lightning McQueen takes an unexpected detour into the small town of Radiator Springs. Away from the track, his ambitions collide with a community whose priorities extend beyond the finish line.

- [ ] Ratatouille

  Remy, a rat with an exceptional sense of taste, finds an unlikely route into a Paris restaurant through kitchen worker Linguini. Their partnership turns a dream of cooking into a delicate balancing act of trust and secrecy.

- [ ] WALL-E

  A solitary waste-collecting robot discovers something that brings a visiting probe named EVE into his life. Their encounter carries the story from an abandoned Earth into space, with much of its character expressed through movement and sound.

- [ ] Up

  Retired balloon seller Carl lifts his house into the sky to pursue a long-held travel dream. Young Wilderness Explorer Russell becomes an accidental passenger on a journey shaped by loss, unlikely company and a remote wilderness.

- [ ] Toy Story 3

  With Andy preparing for college, his toys face an uncertain future and an unexpected move to Sunnyside daycare. The third film follows the established group as they negotiate a new community and a changing relationship with their owner.

- [ ] Cars 2

  Lightning McQueen travels abroad for an international racing competition, with Mater joining him on the trip. Mater's adventure takes a turn into mistaken identities and espionage alongside the races.

- [ ] Brave

  Scottish princess Merida seeks a different future from the one her mother has planned for her. An encounter with magic turns their family disagreement into a challenge neither can solve alone.

- [ ] Monsters University

  Mike and Sulley meet as students with very different approaches to becoming professional scarers. This prequel explores the beginnings of their partnership, while release order places it after Monsters, Inc.

- [ ] Inside Out

  Joy, Sadness and the other emotions inside Riley's mind try to help her through a move to a new city. The story gives memories, personality and emotional upheaval physical places to explore.

- [ ] The Good Dinosaur

  In a world where dinosaurs survived, young Apatosaurus Arlo is swept far from home. His journey alongside a human child called Spot pairs a wilderness adventure with an exploration of fear and companionship.

- [ ] Finding Dory

  A fragment of memory sends Dory looking for her family, with Marlin and Nemo accompanying her. The search introduces new marine companions and gives Dory's own ways of navigating the world a central role.

- [ ] Cars 3

  Lightning McQueen faces a faster generation of racers and questions how he can keep competing. Training with Cruz Ramirez brings a different perspective to his relationship with racing and the people who help him do it.

- [ ] Coco

  Aspiring musician Miguel enters the Land of the Dead while trying to understand his family's history. Music and the traditions of Día de Muertos shape a story about memory, ambition and belonging.

- [ ] Incredibles 2

  Helen returns to public superhero work while Bob takes charge of family life, including Jack-Jack's emerging powers. The sequel picks up the Parr family's story and introduces a campaign to change the public's view of superheroes.

- [ ] Toy Story 4

  Woody joins Bonnie's toys on a road trip with Forky, a homemade toy unsure of his new identity. Encounters away from the playroom give Woody fresh questions about purpose and the lives toys can lead.

- [ ] Onward

  Elf brothers Ian and Barley discover a spell that offers a brief chance to meet their late father. Their quest unfolds in a suburban fantasy world where everyday technology has largely replaced magic.

- [ ] Soul

  Jazz pianist Joe Gardner finds himself in an unfamiliar realm just as a long-awaited musical opportunity arrives. His encounter with the reluctant soul 22 opens questions about ambition and the ordinary experiences that give life meaning.

- [ ] Luca

  Sea monster Luca discovers summer life on land in a seaside Italian town with his friend Alberto. Their friendship grows through shared dreams and the challenge of keeping their underwater identities secret.

- [ ] Turning Red

  Thirteen-year-old Mei transforms into a giant red panda when her emotions become intense. Set in Toronto, her story mixes friendship, family expectations and the excitement of being a devoted boy-band fan.

- [ ] Lightyear

  Space Ranger Buzz Lightyear and his crew become stranded on a hostile planet, prompting a series of attempts to find a way home. This separate space adventure follows the hero who inspired the Toy Story toy, rather than continuing Woody's story.

- [ ] Elemental

  Fire resident Ember and water resident Wade cross paths in a city inhabited by the elements. Their connection draws Ember into questions about her family's expectations and the future she wants for herself.

- [ ] Inside Out 2

  Riley's teenage years bring new emotions into Headquarters, including Anxiety. A hockey-camp experience puts the familiar emotions and their new colleagues under pressure as Riley works out who she wants to be.

- [ ] Elio

  Space-obsessed Elio is mistaken for Earth's representative by an interplanetary organization. His unexpected role creates opportunities for friendship while placing a very ordinary boy in an extraordinary diplomatic situation.

- [ ] Hoppers

  Animal lover Mabel transfers her consciousness into a robotic beaver and gains a new way to communicate with wildlife. Her encounters with the animal community turn a technological breakthrough into a mission to protect their home.

- [ ] Toy Story 5

  Woody, Buzz, Jessie and the other toys face a new kind of competition when a tablet called Lilypad arrives in Bonnie's life. The fifth main Toy Story film brings their search for purpose into a playroom increasingly shaped by technology.
