By Checklist.com

- ☐ Bay Slides
Two short body slides curve into a shallow corner beside the surf pool.
- ☐ Castaway Creek
Float around the park on an inner tube, passing waterfalls, bridges and a mountain tunnel.
- ☐ Crush 'n' Gusher
Water jets send rafts uphill and downhill through open and darkened fruit-chute slides.
- ☐ Gangplank Falls
A large shared raft turns through rocky caverns and past waterfalls on a downhill course.
- ☐ Humunga Kowabunga
Three enclosed body slides plunge down a steep, dark course.
- ☐ Keelhaul Falls
A single-rider tube turns through rocky passages and beneath waterfalls.
- ☐ Ketchakiddee Creek
Younger children can explore shallow pools, miniature slides and a tugboat water cannon in this water-play area.
- ☐ Mayday Falls
Single-rider tubes follow a bumpy downhill route through caves and beneath bridges.
- ☐ Miss Adventure Falls
A conveyor carries four-person rafts uphill before a whitewater trip past treasure-hunting props.
- ☐ Storm Slides
Three winding body-slide routes pass greenery and grottoes before reaching the pool.
- ☐ Typhoon Lagoon Surf Pool
Enter from the sloping beach edge and head into a large wave pool. Wave patterns follow the posted daily schedule.
- ☐ Shark Reef
Guests snorkeled among fish and sharks in this former underwater viewing pool.
